

Camas Parks and Recreation offers youth scholarships

Youth who would like to participate in Camas Parks and Recreation programming and classes, but due to financial hardship might not be able to can find help through a locally funded sponsorship program.

Assistance is available to youth participants with financial need. The sponsorships are available, thanks to donations from local organizations including Camas-Washougal Community Chest, Camas MOMS Club, the Friends of the Camas Community Center, and the TODAY Foundation.

To receive a sponsorship application, visit www.cityofcamas.us/index.php/recactivities, call Camas Parks and Recreation at 834-5307, or visit the Camas Community Center at 1718 S.E. Seventh Ave.
